

School/University Partnerships ASPA
2019 Symposium on Music Teacher Education
University of North Carolina – Greensboro, NC

Business Meeting: Friday, September 13, 2019, 9:45-10:45AM EST

Attendees: Ted Hoffman, Tim Nowak, Ashland M Murphy, Chris Venesile, Craig Resta, Alec Schem, Aaron Himes, Roland Forti, Heather Lofdahl, Michael Chandler, Jared Crutchfield, Emily Mercado

Call to Order and Welcome: Ted Hoffman, SUP ASPA Facilitator

Introductions: Attendees

Announcements: Ted Hoffman described recently approved revisions to the SMTE Constitution and Bylaws. Nomination and election processes for SMTE leadership and ASPA facilitators have been formalized. Nominations and self-nominations for a second SUP ASPA facilitator to serve a four year term will be accepted at the conclusion of the Friday ASPA business meeting.

Old Business: Ted Hoffman distributed copies of the School-University Partnerships in Music Education: A Directory and Resource Guide for School-University Partnerships for review by ASPA members. Hoffman asked that members review the document in preparation for the Saturday working session.

New Business:

-Projects: Ted Hoffman described two new project ideas received from SUP ASPA members in response to the pre-SMTE call for meeting agenda items email. Hoffman opened the floor for additional lines of inquiry. Among those ideas discussed:

- Higher Education Partnerships with Homeschooled Students and Organizations
- Community/Preparatory Schools of Music/Arts and Partnerships with P-12 Schools
- Case Studies of Partnership Development
- Higher Education Partnerships with Charter Schools
- Partnerships for Alternative Field Placements
- Partnerships in the Absence of Music Teachers

-Elections: Ted Hoffman described the nomination and election procedures for a second SUP ASPA facilitator. General responsibilities of facilitators was discussed. The floor was opened for nominations and self-nominations. Having received none, the next nomination and election period will occur during the 2021 SMTE Symposium.

Announcements: The next ASPA meeting on Saturday, September 14, 2019, 10:20AM-12:15PM EST, will serve as a working session.

Adjournment: Ted Hoffman, SUP ASPA Facilitator, adjourned the meeting at 10:20AM EST.

School/University Partnerships ASPA
2019 Symposium on Music Teacher Education
University of North Carolina – Greensboro, NC

Working Session: Saturday, September 14, 2019, 10:20AM-12:15PM EST

Attendees: Ted Hoffman, Tim Nowak, Michael Chandler, Jared Crutchfield, Emily Mercado, Eric Pennelo

Call to Order and Welcome: Ted Hoffman, SUP ASPA Facilitator

Introductions: First-time Attendees

Old Business: Ted Hoffman asked if there was renewed interest in revisiting the School-University Partnerships in Music Education: A Directory and Resource Guide for School-University Partnerships survey. Seeing none, new projects were considered.

New Business:

-Projects: Two new projects emerged, based on the expressed interest demonstrated by the membership. General goals and methodologies were discussed and project leads identified:

- Case Studies of Developing School-University Partnerships – Emily Mercado, project lead
- School-University Partnerships in Music Education: A Status Update – Tim Nowak, project lead

Work on these projects will continue via email and Google Docs in preparation for presentation at the 2020 NAFME Conference.

Announcements:

-Elections: The ASPA facilitator ballot URL was shared. Voting is open through end of day October 15, 2019

-NAfME 202 Proposals: Proposals for NAFME 2020 are being accepted now through February 3, 2020.

Adjournment: Ted Hoffman, SUP ASPA Facilitator, adjourned the meeting at 11:37AM EST.